

OCTOBER EVENT IN SOCIAL WORLD

Richmond's Smart Set Thrills With Interest in Horse Show.

THE MONTH OF BRIDES

Wedding Bells Will Ring Merrily in the Land—Entertainments.

A Sea Shell.

Most delicate, most opalescent shell.
From out the further deep where thou didst dwell
Thou bringest a message full of joy to me—The murmur of the Infinite, the Sea.

For he who clasps thee gently to his ear In thy mysterious depths a song shall hear:
It is the voice of that from whence thou camest.

Now, yesterday, to-morrow, still the same.

The beauty of that song shall never fall For those who listen, nor the glory pale Of that great message, that the Infinite Is with us always, lest we should forget.

For they that listen to that inner voice Shall hear its music ever and rejoice:
The voice of God within us still shall be A song from out the Infinite, the Sea.

—Blanche C. Buckley.

Horse Show at Hand.

The great society event of October, the annual Horse Show, is close at hand. Its approach is greeted with a quickening thrill of interest on the part of Richmond maids and matrons, and more particularly on the part of the debutantes.

The list of pretty brides destined to render the season of 1905-1906 memorable in the social calendar of the city, has already been printed in the society columns of The Times-Dispatch. The receptions and gowns at which they will make their formal bows to society will come later, but at the Horse Show they will be the center of much admiring observation, and many of the prettiest entertainments connected with that early autumn affair will be given in their honor.

It is reported that Mr. George Cole Scott and his bride will return from their wedding trip in time for the Horse Show.
If this report be true, there will certainly be a number of box parties and post-show gossips to mark the entrance into the Richmond social world of so attractive a person as Mrs. Scott.

Miss Valerie Jewell Sanford, of Hartford, Conn., will visit Miss Hester Cabell Tabb, of Monument Avenue, during Horse Show week. Several box parties are already being arranged, in which she will appear as the honored guest.

Miss Pace Aylett Royall, who will be a debutante of the season of 1906-1907, will have as her Horse Show guests Miss Warren, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Henrietta McCrea, of Chicago. Miss Royall and her friends are sure to be associated with what is best and brightest from a social point of view, transpiring during the week of the show.

Among the many young hostesses and debutantes of that time, a noticeable quartet will include Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Cora Younger, Miss Carrie Neal and Miss Madeline English.

The present forecast indicates that an unusual display of the taste and elegance in gowning will be a noticeable feature of the box parties and throughout the general audience. Modistes are busily engaged upon stunning creations that are destined to make the women who wear them, and the place and occasion of their wearing, a retrospective joy to all holding it in remembrance.

October Brides' Month.

The number of weddings scheduled for October, 1905, indicates clearly its right to the title of "bride's month." Richmond society is much interested in a wedding to take place on the afternoon of Tuesday next, at half-past one o'clock, that of Miss Clara Vernon Cooke, daughter of Mrs. W. R. C. Cooke, to Mr. Forney Johnson, son of former Governor and Mrs. Joseph F. Johnson, of Birmingham, Ala.

The ceremony will be performed at "Bremo," the ancestral home of the Miss Virginia Scott Cooke, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Mr.

William H. Johnston, the groom's brother, will act as best man.

The bridesmaids' list will include Miss Rebecca Pollard, of Montgomery, Ala.; Miss Mary Ewing, of Chicago; Miss Annie B. Campbell, of Revere, Va., and Miss Evelyn Conde Bridges, of Richmond. Other attendants will be Mr. R.
E. Lee Taylor, of Norfolk; Dr. Wiley Moore, of New York; Mr. Robert Johnson, of Birmingham, Ala.; and Mr. Cary Hartwell Cooke, of "Lower Bremo," Va.

Two little nieces of the bride, Miss Elizabeth Cooke, of Louisville, Miss., and Miss Frances Cooke, of New Orleans, La., will officiate as ribbon girls.

Guests from a distance to attend the wedding will be former Governor and Mrs. Joseph Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Johnston and Miss Carolyn Johnston, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Philip St. George Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Cooke, of New Orleans; Dr. Cabell Moore, of Berryville, Va.; Miss Mary Semple, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. Gaylord Clark, Misses Cooke, of the University of Virginia; Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Briggs, St. George Cooke, of Louisville, Ky.; Dr.
Charles Hartwell Cooke, of New York, and others.

Engagements Announced.

Mrs. William Rufin Coleman Cooke has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Virginia, to Dr. David Russell Lyman, formerly of Charlottesville, Va., but now of New Haven, Conn.
The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride, "Lower Bremo," Va., Thursday, October 12th.

Invitations Issued.

Mr. and Mrs. John William Robinson, of Graham's Forge, Va., have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Julia, to Dr. Paul Kernan, of Big Stone Gap. The marriage will take place at noon of October 12th, and, owing to the popularity of the young couple, will be one of interest in their section of Virginia.

Miss Robinson is the eldest of three beautiful Robinson sisters, who are known and admired far and wide in the social circles of Southwest Virginia.

Dr. Kernan, a physician of recognized ability, is a son of the late Dr. Kernan, of Russell county, and a grandson of Dr.
E. D. Kernan, a surgeon famous in the Confederate army for his skill.

West-Cottrell.

The marriage of Miss Marian Cottrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H.
Cottrell, to Dr. William Johnson West will take place Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Centenary Methodist Church, Rev. J. B. Betty, of Park Place Church, will officiate. Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer will

Shows the Charming Attire of a Richmond Bud at the Near-at-Hand October Horse Show.

The bud will wear white embroidered mull trimmed in German Valenciennes. The round lace yoke is finished by a full berthe, paneled with insertion and edged with the lace. Ruffles of lace and insertion form puffed elbow sleeves. A pointed girdle is of white taffeta in folds.

The two-piece skirt is shirred at the waist and finished with insertion.
The white Charlotte Corday hat is formed of pleated lace and chiffon and trimmed with ostrich plumes.

be best man, and Miss Sarah E. Cottrell, sister of the bride, maid of honor.

Whist.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club will have the first fall meeting at No. 210 East Franklin on Wednesday, October 12th, at 4:30 P. M.

Reception Recital.

A reception recital will be given Friday evening next at 8 o'clock by the faculty of the Richmond Conservatory of Music, and the public are cordially invited to attend.

The programme will be interspersed with readings from Miss Semaj de P.
Boice, well and most favorably known in Richmond. Mr. Lewis Bruner, of St.
Louis, has charge of the art department at the Conservatory this year.

First Meeting of Club.

The first meeting of the Milton C.
Work Whist Club, for the season of 1905-6, will be held at the Woman's Club, on Tuesday afternoon at half-past four o'clock.

Monday Recital.

Miss Nannie Davis will give a piano recital at the Woman's Club Monday afternoon at half-past four. As Miss Davis is considered a fine musician and has had advantage of the best training under eminent masters the recital is looked forward to with the greatest pleasure by music-loving society.

Miss Davis has recently opened a studio in Richmond and has classes in several of the best Richmond schools.

Birthday Celebrated.

Mr. Jackson Bolton was most agreeably surprised by a number of his friends in Philadelphia evening, who dropped in to celebrate his birthday.

He was the modest recipient of many presents, and responded to the effusions of the guests in which he is held by his friends in his usual felicitous manner.

Mr. Bolton will address the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, his subject being "The Use of Retreat in Children's Diet."

Reception at Art Club.

Invitations have been sent out for a reception and birthday party to be given in the rooms of the Richmond Art Club, corner of Madison and Grace Streets, Thursday, October 12th, from 8 to 10 P. M.

Lectures, on art topics, will be given at the club rooms every Tuesday and Thursday, at 8:15 P. M. Members are entitled to bring one guest to each of these lectures.

An Hour of Music.

to be given by Miss Stella Lipman, pianist, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs.
C. G. Hequembourg, violinist, of this city, promises a true pleasure to music-lovers.

The occasion is to be a morning musicale at the Woman's Club Wednesday, October 11th, from 11 to 12.

The standard of excellence attained by both artists in their lines gives a guarantee of success, and it is to be hoped that musicians of Richmond will be well represented at the opening event of the season. A most beautiful programme will be given.

Enjoyable Reception.

The young men of Waverly gave a very enjoyable reception Monday evening, from 8:30 to 11:30, in the hospitable home of Mrs. L. A. Chappell, in honor of Mr. J. L. Calhoun and his bride, of only a few days, Mrs. Ora Calhoun. Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun were wedded in Bristol, Tenn., and came to Waverly Monday afternoon. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hank-ford, of Cloverdale, Va. The groom is a telegraph operator in the Norfolk and Western railway office at Waverly.

The credit for such hearty reception accorded Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun is largely due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. L.
A. Chappell, who always delights in seeing the younger set enjoy themselves.

Good music and divers games deligh-tfully claimed the attention of the guests until about 10:30, when light refreshments and fruits were served in a most tasteful manner.

Among the invited guests were: Misses Lottie Arnold, Anna Martin, Ethel Norris, Blanche Fleetwood, Sally Burt, Era Parker, Sally Picotter, Lilly Honor-son, of Waverly, and Miss Lizzie Burton, of Richmond. Mr. Hugh C. Parham, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, of Cloverdale, Va. and Messrs. E. N.
Burt, F. A. Thompson, J. T. Barrett, K. W. O'Geary, C. H. Harris, W. V.
West, J. W. Pearson, J. Fleetwood, Jr., William Norris and J. H. Wilson.

Pharr-Mulford.

Mr. Edwin House Mulford has issued invitations for the marriage of his sister, M. Matlee, to Dr. James R. Pharr, of Demloop, W. Va. The ceremony will be performed on the evening of October 10th, in Mr. Mulford's home, No. 262 East Broad Street, by the Rev. R. B.
Eggleston, of the Third Presbyterian Church.

Miss Emily M. Mulford, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and Dr.
Clarence C. Pharr, of Norfolk, the groom's brother, will attend him as best man. Miss Hattie Woodward Tillman, of Roseland, Miss Natalie Simmons, of Newport, Miss Fannie Frazier Bradley, will be the bridesmaids. Dr. Ashton Harwood, of Blinn's Hall, Mr. Willie Major, of Charles City; Mr. B. J. Jones and Mr. E. H. Mulford will be ushers.
Miss Mulford is the daughter of the ## Exclusive Modes in Women's Apparel

Especially Featured for

The Horse Show.

UPON the annual advent of the horse show the most exquisite new creations are evolved under the inspiration of Fashion's Cleverest votaries, and every influence that promotes exclusiveness in women's raiment is set in motion.

The supreme effort of our organization has been for many months directed towards anticipating the exacting requirements of this formal inaugural of the fall and winter social season.

The numbers here specified are selected as types especially featured for this occasion, and are presented with the knowledge that they are faultless.

Stunning Costumes.

Horse Show Types in Exclusive Millinery.

With the surpassing beauty of typical Horse Show Modes, added to our ever brilliant assemblage of millinery creations, the present displays are doubly interesting—the remarkable versatility of the Parisian masters and our own highly talented artists have never been so clearly portrayed as in the creations that constitute our present showing of extravagant fancies.

The new colors embodied in some of these exclusive types are reboux, green, a dull smashed gray called "furnace," Van Dyke brown, Diaz green and capucine or nasturtium color gilding into a scale of beautiful tones of yellow.

The fact that the all-important point of value has received full and careful calculation with the view to minimizing the prices will be immediately apparent in the Paris creations as well as in those that Paris inspired.

Your Horse Show Types are Extreme, one critic said—Yes, Extremely beautiful—stunning!
